

I do not believe that changing the FCC rules regarding broadcast ownership is in my best interested. I think the deregulation of radio is evidence of how the consumer and citizen is not served well by deregulation. I ask that you make no changes to the FCC rules in this matter